

Last Bloom

Autumn... the year's last, loveliest smile. For painters and artists, it is a wellspring of images and colors, a bounty of inspiration. Last Bloom captures the season with flowers, leaves and tiny vines. Mixed with geometrics and small-scale prints, this collection brings the blooms of the season to life, and to your home.

SANDY GERVAIS

First collection – Pieces from My Heart in 1994

Favorite Quilt Market memory – The first Quilt Market I attended was in St. Louis. It was memorable in good ways and bad. We chose to attend because it was within driving distance of us. On the way down we were caught in a black-out dust storm that was so bad there was multiple car pileup on the Interstate behind us. I had never done a booth before so I had to guess on some things, meaning that I didn't bring enough black fabric for the backdrop. I had to send Bruce out to find black fabric while I worked on the booth - of course he was thrilled to do it... Not! Then on the first night of set-up, our car was broken into. But... I won Best Single Booth and on the first day of Market, Mark Dunn and Cheryl Freyberg asked me if I would be interested in designing fabric for Moda. It was an unforgettable Market.

Years sewing and quilting – I have been sewing since I was 8 years old. My first sewing project was a turquoise gathered skirt and a top made of a white and turquoise dog print fabric. When I picture it, it reminds me of something you might find at Mod Cloth.

Who taught you to sew – My mother.
